

MARK LEDBETTER

WEB DEVELOPER + former BROADWAY PERFORMER

I love music and art and finding joy and laughter in everything I do. As a web developer, I thrive on finding the harmony and perfection in a project and in my collaboration on a team. I bring a creative point of view and an openness to explore all possible solutions to my work and the workplace. A positive attitude and disciplined work ethic are the cornerstone of my approach to creating my next masterpiece.
